

Tina Moore - Director of Dance

Dedicated to dance over 27 years Tina is a teacher and choreographer, who has performed and/or trained in all forms of dance. As well as teaching and choreographing for many dance studios Tina established her own school in 1996 and has trained students of all ages and abilities. Among her qualifications Tina is a Registered Teacher with the Royal Academy of Dance and a mentor for newly enrolled teachers on the teaching programme. In 2005 Tina was a semi Finalist on the first of TV'S hit dance contests on ABC 's Strictly Dancing.

The new job of dance director collaborates for Tina her love of all styles of dance with her desire to give quality teachers and choreographers from Newcastle and Sydney the platform and direction to bring their very best work to the local community.
